

Please do not overturn or do anything to weaken New Jersey's do not call list. It has been successful in keeping unwanted calls from disturbing me and many other New Jersey residents. Telemarketing companies should not be given the right to disturb me in my home with their unwanted sales calls under any circumstances.